Box I Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of Item 1 of first sheet)

This international report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:
2. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:
3. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box II Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of Item 2 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:
Please See Continuation Sheet

1. ☐ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
4. ☒ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.: 1-6

Remark on Protest

- The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.
- No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.

BOX II. OBSERVATIONS WHERE UNITY OF INVENTION IS LACKING

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for all inventions to be examined, the appropriate additional examination fees must be paid.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-6, drawn to methods of identifying an inhibitor of fungus-induced eosinophil degranulation.

Group 2, claim(s) 7-14, drawn to method of identifying a fungal component that induces eosinophil degranulation.

Group 3, claim(s) 12-22, drawn to methods of identifying an inhibitor using cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

Group 4, claim(s) 23-31, drawn to a method of identifying a factor that induces eosinophil fungus attack using cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

Group 5, claim(s) 32-38, drawn to a method of identifying an inhibitor of a T cell response to fungus using cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

Group 6 claim(s) 39-42, drawn to method of identifying a fungal antigen that induces a T cell response to fungus using cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

Group 7, claim(s) 43-50, drawn to a method for identifying a compound that inhibits an eosinophilic response using animals.

Group 8, claim(s) 51-58, drawn to a non-human animal or population thereof comprising an eosinophilic response induced by administration of a fungal antigen.

The inventions listed as Groups 1-8 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The technical feature of Group 1 is the observation that fungal antigens induce eosinophil degranulation. This technical feature is anticipated by Yasuko et al *Japanese Journal of Allergology, 48(5):546-553, 1999) see abstract provided.

The technical feature of Group 2 is using eosinophilic degranulation as a means to screen for fungal factors that induces eosinophil degranulation.

The technical feature of Group 3 is a means to identify inhibitors of eosinophil fungus attack using cultured cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

The technical feature of Group 4 is a method to identify a factor that induces eosinophil fungus attack using cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

The technical feature of Group 5 is a method of identifying an inhibitor of a T cell response to fungus using cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

The technical feature of Group 6 is a method of identifying a fungal antigen that induces a T cell response to fungus using cells from a chronic rhinosinusitis patient.

The technical feature of Group 7 is a method for identifying a compound that inhibits an eosinophilic response using animals.

The technical feature of Group 8 is a non-human animal or population thereof comprising an eosinophilic response induced by administration of a fungal antigen.

INTERNATIONAL SEARCH REPORT

PCT/US03/

The technical feature of Group 1, require eosinophilic degranulation induced by a fungal factor, Groups 3-8 do not possess eosinophil degranulation in the method steps and as such lack the same technical feature of Group 1. Group 2, lacks unity with Group 1, because the technical feature of Group 1 is anticipated by the art and therefore not "special" within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.2 because it does not provide for a contribution that the claimed invention makes over the prior art.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220

These Notes are intended to give the basic instructions concerning the filing of amendments under Article 19. The Notes are based on the requirements of the Patent Cooperation Treaty and of the Regulations and the Administrative Instructions under that Treaty. In case of discrepancy between these Notes and those requirements, the latter are applicable. For more detailed information, see also the PCT Applicant's Guide, a publication of WIPO.

In these Notes, "Article", "Rule" and "Section" refer to the provisions of the PCT, the PCT Regulations and the PCT Administrative Instructions, respectively.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING AMENDMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 19

The applicant has, after having received the international search report, one opportunity to amend the claims of the international application. It should however be emphasized that, since all parts of the international application (claims, description and drawings) may be amended during the international preliminary examination procedure, there is usually no need to file amendments of the claims under Article 19 except where, e.g. the applicant wants the latter to be published for the purposes of provisional protection or has another reason for amending the claims before international publication. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that provisional protection is available in some States only.

What parts of the international application may be amended ?

The claims only.

The description and the drawings may only be amended during international preliminary examination under Chapter II.

When ? Within 2 months from the date of transmittal of the international search report or 16 months from the priority date, whichever time limit expires later. It should be noted, however, that the amendments will be considered as having been received on time if they are received by the International Bureau after the expiration of the applicable time limit but before the completion of the technical preparations for international publication (Rule 46.1).

Where not to file the amendments ?

The amendments may only be filed with the International Bureau and not with the receiving Office or the International Searching Authority (Rule 46.2).

Where a demand for international preliminary examination has been/is filed, see below.

How ? Either by cancelling one or more entire claims, by adding one or more new claims or by amending the text of one or more of the claims as filed.

A replacement sheet must be submitted for each sheet of the claims which, on account of an amendment or amendments, differs from the sheet originally filed.

All the claims appearing on a replacement sheet must be numbered in Arabic numerals. Where a claim is cancelled, no renumbering of the other claims is required. In all cases where claims are renumbered, they must be renumbered consecutively (Administrative Instructions, Section 205(b)).

What documents must/may accompany the amendments ?

Letter (Section 205(b)):

The amendments must be submitted with a letter.

The letter will not be published with the international application and the amended claims. It should not be confounded with the "Statement under Article 19(1)" (see below, under "Statement under Article 19(1)").

The letter must indicate the differences between the claims as filed and the claims as amended. It must, in particular, indicate, in connection with each claim appearing in the international application (it being understood that identical indications concerning several claims may be grouped), whether

- (i) the claim is unchanged;
- (ii) the claim is cancelled;
- (iii) the claim is new;
- (iv) the claim replaces one or more claims as filed;
- (v) the claim is the result of the division of a claim as filed.
